- WELCOME (Katy Liddell)
- CONVERSATION WITH JOHN KING & AMY NECHES
 - John King (columnist for the SF Chronicle) and Amy Neches (SF Redevelopment Agency Project Manager for South Beach/Mission Bay) spoke of the historical aspects of South Beach and Mission Bay and the numerous proposed plans thru the years for the development of these areas. Amy also touched briefly on the Mission Bay South retail development coming to 4th Street. Followed by Q&A.
- ANNOUNCEMENTS
 - Marty Coressel, Jeff Anderson, and Bob Finnell spoke about the already-established Bryant Bay Bridge Corridor Adopt-A-Street Group which has been focusing on partnering with city agencies and residents to clean our streets of trash and graffiti and to address open space and homeless issues. Interested residents are encouraged to contact them for more information or to participate.
 - Anne Marie Engel reminded all of the upcoming Social Committee's event at "Local" restaurant.
 - Katherine Webster updated all on the upcoming "Taste of South Beach Mission Bay" event scheduled for Saturday Sept 19th.
 - Katy Liddell updated all on the status of the 2nd Street Bike Plan. The SFMTA and the Planning Dept have promised to work with us on a design concept that will be agreeable to all.
 - Matt Springer will present an "Earthquake Talk" on October 14th at the Mission Bay Library. Details to be posted soon on www.SouthBeachMissionBay.com
- NEXT MEETING
 - NO meeting in Sept. Our next meeting will be Monday, October 12th.
