| TOPIC | Open Space in Rincon + A Conversation with Southern Station SFPD Captain Falvey |
|--------------|---|

- WELCOME (Alice Rogers)
- RINCON / WATERFRONT TRIANGLE (OPEN SPACE)

Luke Spray, Associate Director of Strategic Partnerships for SF Parks Alliance spoke to the group about an open space in Rincon bounded by Howard, Steuart, and The Embarcadero. Known as the "Waterfront Triangle", the Port-managed space is 5,000 square feet and currently supporting the 1 Steuart construction project. The SF Parks Alliance works with a community to identify and develop "active" open spaces to benefit the neighborhood. For this Waterfront Triangle, Luke shared with us what ideas have been received on what this space should look like. A play area for kids? Affordable food kiosks? A welcoming landscaped area with seating, trees, lighting, at minimum. Several residents in attendance shared their ideas for this space. The conversation will continue as the SF Parks Alliance gathers more information and data. To view the PowerPoint slides, click here. To send additional ideas to Luke, email luke@sfparksalliance.org.
- A CONVERSATION WITH SOUTHERN STATION SFPD CAPTAIN TIM FALVEY

Captain Tim Falvey of the SFPD Southern Station began by reviewing some stats for the city as well as in our neighborhood (robberies, burglaries, auto break-ins, homicides, etc.) Due to the protests over the last week, there were 133 looting incidents in SF, with 96 arrests of looters.

Because of the recent clashes between protesters and the police throughout the country, the national conversation has led to the review of police policies and procedures. Captain Falvey provided an informative overview of what changes the SFPD had already implemented over the last few years. Followed by Q&A.

Southern Station holds monthly Community Meetings (location moves around the area). This is a great opportunity for residents to speak directly to the SFPD. These meetings, unfortunately, are on hold until SIP ends. Southern Station also sends out a monthly newsletter. For more info on both, visit their website here.
