	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ WELCOME/INTRODUCTIONS (Katy Liddell)▪ ACADEMY OF ART UNIVERSITY<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Elisa Stephens, President of the Academy of Art, gave a history of the university founded in 1929 by her father. It is based here in SF. 18,000 students, 1/3 of which take classes online. 2,000 classes offered in various fields. 3,000 employees, including instructors from all over the world. The Academy occupies 40-45 blocks (offices/classrooms) throughout the city. For more info, go to http://www.academyart.edu/▪ LUCKY STRIKE BOWLING<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Steven Foster, founding member and CEO of this family-run business, is proud and excited to be bringing Lucky Strike to SF. Company began in 2003, with their first location in Hollywood CA. SF will be their 21st location, with more to follow in the US and Europe. The SF location, due to space, will only have 12 lanes. They are part bowling alley, part bar/lounge, part restaurant – upper scale. The reported issues/concerns by some Beacon residents have all been addressed. (Beacon HOA Board member Luke Lightning praised Steven for his numerous trips to SF to meet with him and address/resolve any and all concerns to everyone’s satisfaction.) Waiting on all permits, estimating to open early 2012. For more info, go to http://www.bowlluckystrike.com/▪ ANNOUNCEMENTS<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Katherine Webster advised that the next Neighborhood Assoc Social will be a brunch on Sunday 6/26 at 25 Lusk (10% discount to be given). Details to follow.➤ Gary Pegueros advised that if anyone was interested in receiving Ken Craig’s weekly Crime Activity Report to speak to him after the meeting. Gary also reminded all of an opportunity to meet the designer of the not-yet-built Public Safety Bldg coming to Mission Bay. Meeting scheduled for 6/23 at 2:30p at the Mission Creek Park Pavilion, 290 Channel Street.▪ NEXT MEETING<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Monday, July 11, 2011.
