|--------------|----------------------------------|

- WELCOME / INTRODUCTIONS (Katy Liddell, President)
- ANNOUNCEMENTS
 - Katy Liddell announced the upcoming CAC Sub-committee meetings: Transportation, August 21st, 6:30—8:30, at the Port Bayside Conference Room; Quality of Life, August 26th, 6—8, in this same Community room.
 - Bruce Agid reminded us that the regular LRV T and N trains would be replaced by shuttle buses this Sat/Sun 8/17-18, as part of the Muni Metro Turnback Rail Rehabilitation project. The next shutdown is scheduled for Labor Day Weekend August 31 through September 2.
 - Bruce also mentioned that slots are still available to serve as a Docent on the E-line on weekends concurrent with the America's Cup races. Contact Bruce for details (bruce.h.agid@gmail.com).
 - Alice Rogers mentioned that a Retail Task Force will be forming (or renewing itself) to proactively work with brokers/owners to fill neighborhood vacancies with neighborhood-serving businesses. Info/updates and calls to action will be posted on Yahoo Group. (Those who have already volunteered interest have been noted!)
- WATERFRONT ALLIANCE
 - The Honorable Art Agnos, SF Mayor from 1988—1992, presented the Waterfront Alliance's opposition case against the Golden State Warriors' current proposal for an entertainment arena, retail complexes, hotel, and residential tower on Piers 30/32 and Seawall Lot 330. Q+A followed.
- NEXT MEETING
 - Representatives from the Golden State Warriors and the Mayors Office of Economic and Workforce Development will make their case for the Warriors' project at our next meeting.
