TOPIC	A Conversation with District 6 Supervisor Matt Dorsey
--------------	---

- WELCOME + INTRODUCTIONS (Alice Rogers)
- Announcement – Gary Pegueros reminded residents of the need for volunteers and/or donations to support the day-to-day management of Rincon Hill Dog Park at Beale/Bryant Streets.
- A Conversation with District 6 Supervisor Matt Dorsey
Supervisor Dorsey was appointed to District 6 Supervisor three months ago. Previously he worked in San Francisco City Attorney’s office for 14 years as Communications Director, and for 2+ years for the San Francisco Police Department as a Civilian Command Staff Director under Chief Bill Scott.

Some of the issues that concern Supervisor Dorsey:

- Crisis of overdose deaths due to drugs
- Getting more addicts into Treatment Centers
- The need for more Housing, including affordable and supportive units
- Public Safety (including criminal justice, pedestrian safety, and speed enforcement)
- Safety for the unhoused population (as well as housing)

Supervisor Dorsey is eager to meet with residents in HOAs to discuss issues of concern to them and asks that residents contact his office via DorseyStaff@sfgov.org to set up meetings, and/or to sign up for his newsletter.

Followed by Q&A

Topics include Seawall Lot 330 at Piers 30/32, Recall of District Attorney Chesa Boudin, Navigation Centers, the proposed Amazon project, the Mission Bay Public Realm Plan, Vision Zero and Traffic Enforcement, Surveillance Technology.

To contact Supervisor Dorsey’s office, email DorseyStaff@sfgov.org.
