DA Brooke Jenkins hit the ground running when she became the DA, bringing in her own seasoned and experienced executive management team focusing on accountability and making the system more fair. She sat down with the SFPD to address the rampant drug issues – both drug dealing and drug use – and how that impacts an increase in property crimes.

DA Jenkins then responded to pre-submitted questions as well as questions from the Zoom chat. Topics covered

- Sideshows
- Accountability within the DA’s Office with regards to drug cases, violent crime cases, and graffiti issues
- The challenge of finding an available bed for mental health patients vs keeping them incarcerated
- Homeless issues and challenges
- Data collection and analysis to track crime trends
- Former DA’s Chesa Boudin’s policies vs George Gascon
- The DA’s relationship with the SFPD and Judiciary
- The DA’s vision for San Francisco over the next 2-5 years
- The ability to track crimes from start to completion
- Crime statistics in San Francisco – perception vs. reality

Next Zoom Meeting: Monday November 14th, 6pm. A presentation on Link21 – a proposed under-the-bay crossing between SF and the East Bay.
